The Bob

We haven't seen a trend as big as the bob since headbands crowded our accessory drawers two seasons ago. Ashley Scott's version is especially popular since its curved-under ends, airy fringe and sleek texture are so chic and easy-to-wear. Use a round brush to roll ends under while blow-drying, then mist with shine spray for gleam.

Half-Updos

Jennifer Lopez has no fear when it comes to experimenting with extreme fashion or complicated hairdos, but even her simplest styles look amazing. Long and full with lots of sexy wave throughout, J. Lo simply pulls the crown section back and secures with a coated elastic to show off all her hair's enviable length and body.

Sharp Angles

Taking a nod from British style icon Victoria Beckham, Rihanna rocked the Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Awards in a stunning, sleek asymmetrical bob. The mod cut looks flawless when hair's blown out from a dramatic side part and smoothed out in sections with a narrow flat iron. Use pomade to add shine and separation.
