INTO THE BLUE

Five reasons to dive Into the Blue

1 Set in the tropical waters of the Bahamas, this crime caper (about deep-sea divers who find a sunken treasure and a stash of cocaine inside a crashed cargo plane) is the perfect fall film for those of us who didn't want summer to end.

2 Ashley Scott, Scott Caan, Paul Walker and Jessica Alba are the hottest cast to hit the movie screen in ages — and they flaunt plenty of skin to prove it!

3 It's like Fear Factor meets Jaws: The sharks in the movie are real, not computer-generated. "There were times that my heart was pounding in my chest," admits Paul.

4 The movie goes from virtual vacation to tense thriller once the drug dealers who left the treasure behind come back to reclaim what's theirs.

5 It's Raiders of the Lost Ark in bikinis and bathing suits — get ready for an extreme adrenaline rush and the ultimate guilty pleasure!

PG-13, in theaters, Friday, September 30
