Call it bed-head beauty; short cuts are extra-sexy when they get a little wild.

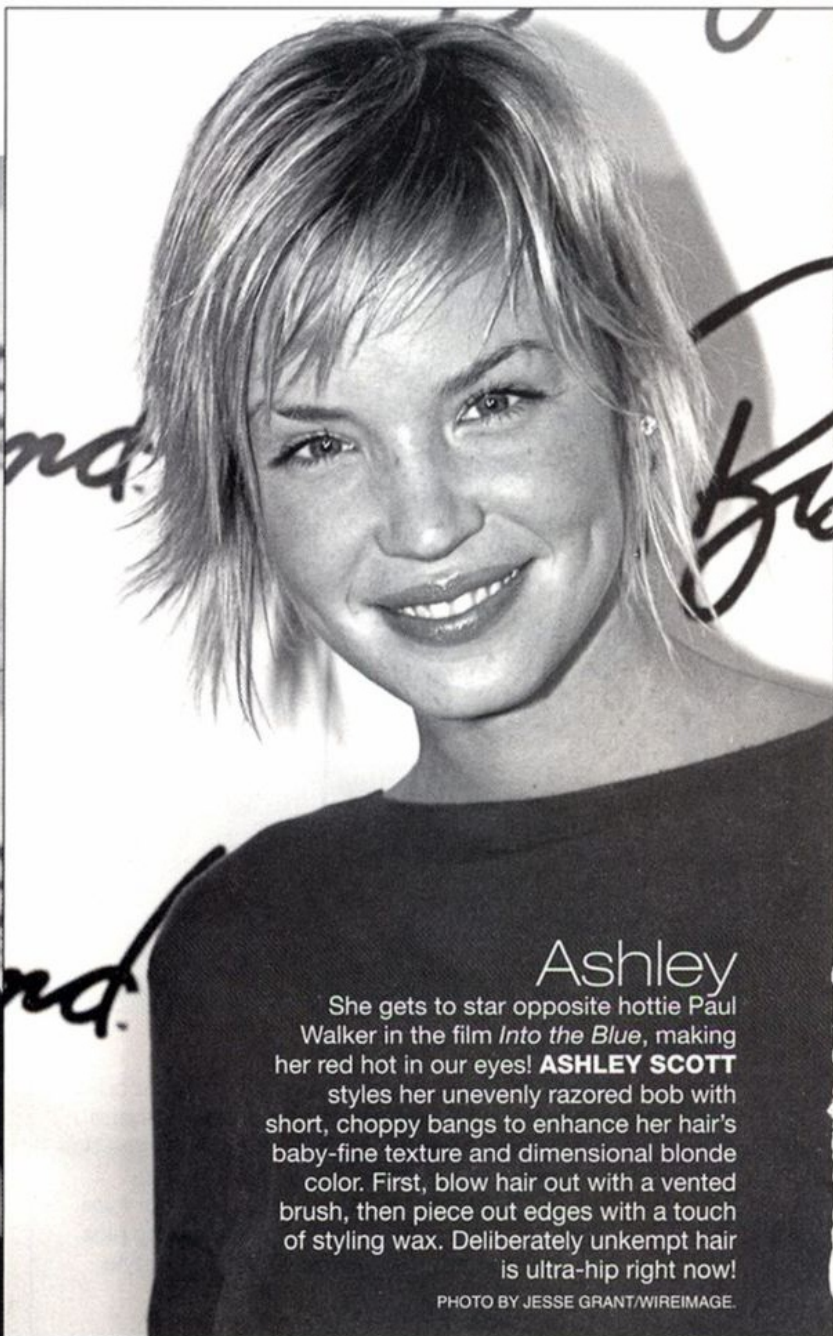

Yoanna

America's Next Top Model winner YOANNA HOUSE glams it up at an awards show in L.A. by opting for cool, bohemian flair. The cut's great for hair that's on-the-grow, and combines long bangs and interior layers. To copy her look, blow hair dry with a vent brush, then muss it up with gel-coated fingers. Take a section back on one side and catch with a pin or barrette—it's an easy, trendy way to put flair in your hair.

Ashley

She gets to star opposite hottie Paul Walker in the film Into the Blue, making her red hot in our eyes! ASHLEY SCOTT styles her unevenly razored bob with short, choppy bangs to enhance her hair's baby-fine texture and dimensional blonde color. First, blow hair out with a vented brush, then piece out edges with a touch of styling wax. Deliberately unkempt hair is ultra-hip right now!
